Northwestern Leadership Trust

In 2020, the leadership of Northwestern Oklahoma State University elected to make a strategic move to secure funding for a long-term student leadership emphasis at Northwestern with the creation of Northwestern Leadership Trust. This endowment replaces the President's Association (originally the Presidential Partners program).

The institutional emphasis on freedom of thought, independent research, thorough analysis and critical thinking established Northwestern as a highly successful creator of young leaders who have grown to make a huge impact on our world.

The Northwestern Leadership Trust, like the programs before, will continue to support the President's Leadership Class (PLC). PLC, led by the University President, is a highly competitive program for first-time freshmen that allows Northwestern to attract the best and brightest students from the region. As the endowment grows, additional programs will be supported.

Dr. Bo Hannaford

President of Northwestern Oklahoma State University

Master of Ceremonies

Dr. Jesse Schroeder

Dr. Jesse Schroeder is an assistant professor of mass communication at Northwestern Oklahoma State University. Schroeder graduated from Northwestern in 2003 and started working in the radio and television industry. In 2006, he returned to Northwestern as an instructor. During this time, he completed his Ph.D. and led his students to win multiple state and regional awards for their work in broadcasting. Also during this time, Schroeder led the university through the accreditation process with the Higher Learning Commission. Receiving full 10-year accreditation status is a highlight of Schroeder's career.

In 2014, Schroeder left Northwestern to return to the TV news business. He served the Sherman/Denison, Texas, communities in Texoma at KXII-TV, working as a morning news anchor. During this time he won multiple awards for his work. Most recently, Schroeder worked for KLTU/KTRE in Tyler, Texas. While there, he served as the primary 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. news anchor. Schroeder also reported extensively on weather. This reporting took him up in the station helicopter to cover the aftermath of severe storms in the area and allowed him to share the stories of those who needed help and assistance during those difficult times.

Schroeder and his family returned to northwest Oklahoma in July 2023, when he accepted the mass communication position at Northwestern. He is excited to be back home and looks forward to helping his students accomplish their career goals. Schroeder and his wife Amanda have been married for 20 years and have three children, Brayden, Parker, and Mia.

And a special thanks to you for supporting the 2025 Miss Northwestern and Miss Northwestern's Teen Competitions.

Your admission goes toward expenses of Miss Northwestern and Miss Northwestern's Teen as they attend the Miss Oklahoma Competition.

Please join them as they compete the first week of June at Rose State College's Hudiburg Center for Performing Arts.

MY BROTHER. MY HERO. MY WHY

My little brother, Luke, has been the driving force in my passion for raising awareness and advocating for childhood cancer. He was born with a grapefruit sized cancerous tumor that was surgically removed at 3 days old. He's now 11 years old and still dealing with the side effects of childhood cancer but is otherwise living a happy, healthy life. Throughout my year as Miss Northwestern, I've used my platform to share Luke's story and advocate for families with similar stories.

Lukie Pookie, I love you with my entire heart. Thank you for being the BEST baby brother and sticking by my side through this entire journey. Thankful for you every single day!!!

Love, Meg

The memories of you playing a Metallica song on the Miss Oklahoma stage will live forever – you were LEGENDARY! The Miss Northwestern Organization is better because of the legacy you have left. Thanks for being YOU!

Christina, from day one, you have hit the ground running and been a fabulous representative for Northwestern. From tiaras to your FFA endeavors, you are dedicated, humble, and the definition of a leader. We can't wait to watch you shine in the years to come! You are a Ranger through and through!

Lilly, you are one in a billion. You are a natural-born leader, and you truly were the CEO of the Oklahoma Stars. You have represented Northwestern with unprecedented grace throughout this year. You will change this world for the better.

As you continue your journeys in life, remember that every interaction, every event, and every effort contributes to the legacy of the Miss Northwestern Organization. Your passion and enthusiasm reflect what it means to be local titleholders and what it means to be Rangers.

You are loved and supported by all of us.

As always,

Ride, Rangers, Ride!
